

Name: Muondoh Nadege A.

Class: Nursing level 500

Faculty: Health science

Course title: Seminar and Research Technique

- 1) Research is a systematic investigation to discover, develop and verify knowledge.
- 2) The criteria for a researchable topic includes:
 - Genuine interest of the Researcher. That is, the research topic should be of interest to the researcher and to a scientific community.
 - Feasibility . That is, the researcher must be sure that Research can be done and complete.
 - Amount of resources affected by the problem. That is, the researcher should be sure that the available equipments are there to carry out the research.
 - Researchability of the problem. That is, the researcher should be able to establish facts that the problem needs research.
 - The frequency of occurrence of the problem.