

1a) I have chosen this profession because I could make an impact into people lives ,I can touch many life by giving care, affection ,and compassion .

b) Yes

2) My philosophy in life is to learn something every day to take care of my physical and mental health and to enjoy life serving GOD. Also to live while you are alive and you should give others that same privilege .WE Shouldn't judges people for the choices they make .

-My personal values are family, loyalty, compassion, fairness, honesty, generosity, integrity and perseverance.

3a) seeing my self years from now as a nurse, public servant and product of my family ,aim to serve the people

b) By working extremely hard to meet up my goals