

Assignment

1a. What motivated me to joining the nursing profession is first the kind of heart I have loving caring and the much concern I show to people who are in need or to those who are down

1b. Yes

2. My philosophy is God first and God over all

My values are .. loyalty is the key to greater Achievements, No compromise , family is gold ,time consciousness cuz time is a revealer

3a. In Five years I see myself as an owner of a Foundation for the orphans and widows and a shareholder why not a director of one renowned hospital abroad specialized in treating communicable disease worldwide

3b. Studying extremely hard .. burning the midnight candle

Social capital a route to knowing people and going places

Working and gaining experience in hospitals through voluntary and involuntary internships

Saving up much money for my petit business

And praying hard committing all these plans to God for him to take over