

1. Research is a systematic investigation and study about an idea to establish facts and conclude.
2. When there is something of interest in the topic and there's a need to establish facts about it and set measures on improving on it.